

FHNtoday.com picture packages

FHN media publications is offering photography packages for teams, activities and individuals. All proceeds will benefit the FHN media program. Package information can be seen below. If you have any questions or would like to register for a picture package, please email Beth Phillips at beth.phillips@fhdschools.org.

Team Photography Packages

Due to the generosity of the FHN Athletic Booster club, all teams have the opportunity to receive free photos for the 2012-2013 school year. The number of photos will depend on the size of the team. Varsity, JV and Freshman teams will count as separate teams. Pictures will be given to the team at the end of the season on a CD with all rights to the pictures. Fall teams must email beth.phillips@fhdschools.org by Sept. 12. Winter and spring sports must contact before the first game/meet/match.

Members of the FHN Booster club will receive a $5 discount.

Additional Information: All pictures will be photographed by student photographers. FHN media has a history of winning photography awards on a national level. Students learn how to take professional quality pictures through training and practice. Pictures included on the CD will be chosen by the photographer. You can access examples of the photography staffs photos on FHNtoday.com. Picture packages will include a variety of shots from the game including warm ups, the game and sideline action. When you register for a package, you will be sent a confirmation email that will include information on the package and a payment due date.
